

NBLA Open Meeting

Speaker: Carol Martinoli

Training Mustangs for the Extreme Mustang Makeover

Please join us at the Newtown Meeting House, 31 Main Street, Newtown on September 19th at 7:30 pm for a fascinating program. RSVPs are requested.

Carol Martinoli is coming to speak about her experience training a wild Mustang to compete in the Extreme Mustang Makeover. Trainers and Mustangs spend approximately 100 days working together to prepare to compete in a series of classes that will showcase their new skills at the Extreme Mustang Makeover. She has competed in three of these events and has a strong appreciation for the American Mustang.

Carol has been a professional trainer and riding instructor for over 30 years. She grew up on a Morgan breeding farm and has worked with a wide range of horses, including Mustangs, Morgans, draft horses, miniatures and gaited horses. She has competed in hunter paces riding side saddle side saddle, ridden reining horses, trained horses for Cowboy Mounted Shooting and trained and shown carriage horses. She's been a Centered Riding instructor, and is currently working on her PATH certification. Carol is a former member of the Second Company Governor's Horse Guard, and currently serves as the riding platoon leader and training officer for the First Company Governor's Horse Guard. She trains at her facility (North Star Farm) in Bethlehem, CT.
